Common Questions and Answers in American Tradition Unit 5

Having access to the right answers can clarify difficult concepts and reinforce learning. Below are some typical questions from Unit 5 and their detailed answers.

1. What were the main causes of the Civil War?

The primary causes of the Civil War include economic differences between the North and South, states' rights issues, and the dispute over slavery. The Southern economy relied heavily on slavery, while the North was more industrialized and favored abolition. The election of Abraham Lincoln in 1860, who opposed the expansion of slavery, further heightened tensions. Additionally, disputes over tariffs, secession, and territorial expansion contributed to the conflict.

2. How did Reconstruction aim to rebuild the South after the Civil War?

Reconstruction was a period from 1865 to 1877 aimed at reintegrating the Confederate states into the Union and redefining African Americans' rights. It involved passing amendments like the 13th (abolishing slavery), 14th (granting citizenship and equal protection), and 15th (voting rights for men). Reconstruction governments attempted to rebuild the economy, establish public schools, and protect civil rights. However, it faced resistance from some Southern whites, leading to the rise of discriminatory practices like Black Codes and Jim Crow laws.

3. What were the characteristics of the Gilded Age?

The Gilded Age, spanning roughly from the 1870s to about 1900, was marked by rapid economic growth, industrialization, and significant technological advancements. It was characterized by the rise of monopolies and trusts, a burgeoning wealthy class, and political corruption. Despite economic prosperity, the era also saw stark social inequalities, poor working conditions, and widespread poverty among industrial workers.

4. Who were some influential American writers of this period, and what themes did they explore?

- Mark Twain: Known for satire and works like "The Adventures of Tom Sawyer" and "The Adventures of Huckleberry Finn," Twain explored themes of innocence, societal hypocrisy, and the American frontier.

- Henry James: Focused on psychological realism and complex character studies, often examining American expatriates and their interactions with European society.

- Kate Chopin: Explored themes of gender roles, individual freedom, and social constraints in works like "The Awakening."

5. What reforms characterized the Progressive Era?

The Progressive Era (roughly 1890s-1920s) aimed to address social issues caused by industrialization. Key reforms included:
