The October Man is set primarily during the autumn months, emphasizing the changing seasons and their symbolic significance—transition, reflection, and the waning of light.

The novella's setting enhances its mood, blending the mundane with the magical. The city's foggy streets, dimly lit pubs, and quiet parks serve as backdrops for Chorley's internal and external conflicts. This immersive environment immerses readers into a London that is alive with secrets and stories waiting to be uncovered.

Aaronovitch employs a tone that balances suspense and introspection. The story's mood is tinged with a sense of melancholy but also hope, reflecting Chorley's personal journey.
